Happy Monday, Raptors! As we kick off a new week, there are exciting opportunities ahead to plan for your success, make an impact in the upcoming election, and engage with important historical reflections.

Planning for Success is Powerful

Students, as you think about your future, planning is key to unlocking your potential. Take advantage of the resources available to you, such as our Student Employment Services Office, which is kicking off three multi-industry job fairs—starting Wednesday on the Germantown Campus, followed by events on the Takoma Park/Silver Spring Campus, and the Rockville Campus in the coming weeks.

Election Preparation Resources

Tomorrow, students can hop on a free party bus, complete with food, swag, and prizes to travel to an early voting site and cast their ballots in this year's elections. Reserve your seat to participate in this event. Students and employees are welcome to join the Office of Equity and Inclusion and the ignITe Hub for their Let's Talk: Pre-Election session tomorrow to discuss the election. In addition, for complete information about the candidates and issues, check out the Library's curated election resources as well as MC Votes' voter guides to prepare for the polls.

Bella Mischkinisky Lecture Commemorates the Holocaust

Join us for the tenth annual Bella Mischkinisky Memorial Lecture, featuring award-winning filmmaker Aviva Kempner. Ms. Kempner will present her film, A Pocketful of Miracles: A Tale of Two Siblings, which tells the story of her mother and uncle, both Holocaust survivors. The film will be screened via webinar tonight, followed by the director's lecture on Tuesday on the Germantown Campus. Events such as this foster thoughtful reflection and historical analysis and deepen our commitment to inclusion.

With Raptor Regards,

Dr. Jermaine F. Williams
